28 Oct 2013

Tickets for one of the industry's most anticipated bashes of the year, the annual AMASA party, are being snapped up fast but the industry is reminded that tickets must be booked and paid for to gain entrance.

Themed The Great Gatsby, the party will be held on 31 October at Thatchers in Lonehill.

Dustine Tobler, deputy Chairperson of AMASA and head of the party portfolio says: "While tickets are being booked quickly we have yet to receive full payment for some of those bookings. We're urging the industry to make sure their tickets are paid in full before the event, rather than to risk disappointment at the door."

Tickets are limited to 1200 people and can be purchased by visiting <http://www.amasa.org.za/annualparty.php>

AMASA is once again collecting toys for the children at Little Switzerland and partygoers are reminded to please bring along a gift.

Prizes are available for the Best Dressed Team and the Best Dressed Individual.
