

SES appoints Grey as digital agency across Africa

Following an extensive multi-agency pitch process, Grey has been appointed the digital agency of record for world-leading satellite operator, SES. The scope of work includes pan-African digital strategy, media and implementation, as well as supporting production services through-the-line.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>