

Harley-Davidson launches its new 2012 model range

Engines revved for media, celebs and biker enthusiasts as Harley-Davidson opened the doors to Newtown's Turbine Hall for an exclusive event to launch its 2012 model range.

Guests included Harley rider and Isidingo star Jack Devnarain who also served as the MC for the evening, as well as award-winning pop sensation Louise Carver, TV personality Kuli Roberts and socialite Jen Su.

The celebrities, VIP members and specialist motoring, lifestyle and business press all joined in the ultimate experience where they were able to learn about the new model range, have photographs taken with the motorcycles, receive temporary tattoos at the on-site pop-up tattoo parlour and listen to the local band, the Southern Gypsy Queen.
